

THE INDIAN YEAR BOOK

1936-37.

EDITED BY SIR STANLEY REED, K.B.E., LL.D.
AND FRANCIS LOW, J.P.

The Whitaker of the Indian Empire. The only complete book of reference on India published anywhere.

SOME PRESS OPINIONS.

THE INDIAN YEAR BOOK, 1936-37 (Times of India Press, Bombay, Rs. 7-8)

"The Indian Year Book and Who's Who," the 1936-37 edition of which is now available, is probably the most comprehensive work of reference on Indian affairs published. It supplies information on subjects as diverse as politics, finance and commerce on the one hand, and meteorology, education and sport on the other.

The sections dealing with Indian finance, commerce, industry and agriculture are perhaps the most important from the city man's view-point. These sections are liberally supplied with statistical matter. At the same time nearly every section contains information likely to be required from time to time by anyone interested in Empire trade or Indian affairs.—Financial News.

THE INDIAN YEAR BOOK for 1936-37 (Bennett, Coleman, pp. 1,139, Rs. 7/8) is again a valuable work of reference for all those who are concerned in any way with India. Almost all sides of the national life are included, from the newest Government statistics and the work of the International Labour Conference to the prize-winners at the dog shows. There is a most useful record of the country's trade and the activities and personnel of the chief commercial organisations. The information about the textile industry, the record of the working of the Tariff Board, and the summary of the activities of the Legislature, too, are all useful. Although there is a wealth of statistics, the social activities have not been overlooked. The Who's Who and the detailed information about the Princes and their States and leading people will be of interest and value to all who have contact with India.—The Manchester Guardian.

THE INDIAN YEAR BOOK AND WHO'S WHO.

In its twenty-second year of issue the "Indian Year Book" for 1936-37 edited by Sir Stanley Reed and Francis Low has become a most reliable guide to India. In its 1,132 pages there is, it may be confidently stated, no detail of important information that has been omitted. The fact that the index alone runs into more than 40 pages should convey an idea of the thoroughness with which everything concerning India has been collated, analysed and tabulated. The value of the book lies in the fullness of the treatment. The historical background of every side of Indian life has been treated with a scholarly touch. Here one may read the romance of India from ancient times to the present day.

An important part of the book is the "Who's Who in India" which is followed by a "Who's Who of Indian princes, chiefs and nobles."—Times of Ceylon

This Agency is a subordinate Political Agency of the Gujarat States Agency. It is comprised of all the non-salute States and Estates of the old Rewa Kantha Agency, the State of Surgana, previously in the Nasik Agency and the petty States known as the Dangs, previously in the Surat Agency.

Rewa Kantha means the district or province situated on the banks of the river Rewa or Narmada or Narbada. This river is held in high veneration among the Hindus especially in the Bombay Presidency.

All the States comprised in the Province of Rewa Kantha are not on the banks of Narbada, for some of the Northern States, i.e., Kadana, and the States in Pandu Mewas are on the banks of the Mahi river. In fact the Rewa Kantha Agency comprises territories watered both by the Rewa and Mahi Rivers.

The population consists of the following main classes. Hindus, Jains, Musalmans, Animistic (Bhils, Dhankas, Kolis and Naikdas).

Surgana is situated on the borders of the Nasik District.

The Dangs consist of a tract of country between the Sahyadris and the Surat District which is parcelled out among 14 petty Chiefs. Of these 13 are Bhils and one a Kokani.

The Headquarters of the Agency which is situated at the Baroda Residency in view of the fact that the Secretary to the Agent to the Governor-General, Gujarat States, and Resident at Baroda is also ex-officio Political Agent of this Agency, consist of—

Political Agent:—Mr. A. P. Low, I.C.S.

Deputy Political Agent:—Rao Sahab M. B. Mehra.

Assistant Political Agent for the Dangs—Mr. E. O. Sampson, M.B.E.

Many of the States and Estates are small and only a few enjoy restricted jurisdictional powers. The four Chiefs of Kadana, Bhaderwa, Surgana and Jambughoda are however larger and more important, the first three named being included in the list of electorates for representative members of the Chamber of Princes.

The following 16 States conduct their relations through the Political Agent :—

UNIVERSITY OF BOMBAY.

Incorporated under Act XXII of 1857 (subsequently amended by Act VIII of 1904 and by Act IV of 1928 with all its subsequent amendments).

The Senate meets ordinarily once a year, on the last Saturday in January and at other times when convened by the Vice-Chancellor. A meeting of the Senate can be convened on the requisition of any twenty of the Fellows to the Vice-Chancellor. Twenty members of the Senate form a quorum; and all questions are decided by a majority of the votes of the members present, the Chairman, when the numbers are equal, having a second or casting vote. There are five Faculties, viz., Arts, Science, Technology, Law and Medicine. A member of the Senate may be assigned, on the recommendation of the Syndicate, to one or more Faculties. Each Faculty elects its own Dean. The Annual Convocation for conferring degrees is held on the third Tuesday in August.

The Executive Government of the University is vested in a Syndicate consisting of the Vice-Chancellor as Chairman, the Director of Public Instruction and sixteen Fellows, who are elected for three years by the Academic Council and the Senate in the proportion of 7 : 9.

BYRAMJEE JEEJEEBHAY MEDICAL SCHOOL, POONA.

The School in Poona opened with 82 pupils on the 1st November 1878. The formal opening ceremony was performed by Sir Richard Temple, the Governor of Bombay, on 7th December 1878. On that occasion, Sir Richard Temple announced that Mr. Byramjee Jeejeebhoy had generously promised a gift of a bungalow in Civil Lines to serve as residential quarters for the students and a sum of Rs. 10,000 for the formation of an Endowment Fund for the School.

Since its opening, the School has continued to expand and the curriculum, which originally was of three years, has, since 1906, been extended to four years. As the school steadily progressed, the necessity for new buildings began to be felt, and in the year 1908 two new blocks of buildings, consisting of two lecture rooms, an examination hall, and a new dissecting room with other subsidiary rooms, were erected by Government. A large residential building to accommodate 80 pupils was also built by Government. This is situated in the compound of the bungalow originally presented by Mr. Byramjee Jeejeebhoy. In 1915, a house for the Medical Officer, who supervises the students' quarters, was erected.

On 1st November 1928, the occasion of the Golden Jubilee of the School, the New Laboratory buildings and the Out-Patient Department were opened by the Minister of Education. An independent Physiology Department is being fitted up.

CAMP EDUCATION SOCIETY'S HIGH SCHOOL—Poona.

This Society was founded and organised in 1882 and was duly registered in 1889 with the benevolent object of educating the poor, helpless students of the backward classes. The present existing buildings of the Society came into existence in 1901 through the munificent donation of the late Sir Dinshaw Manekji Petit. At present this is the only Secondary School in the Bombay Presidency holding this privilege. Two others are the Primary Schools teaching Marathi and Gujarathi respectively upto the Fourth Standard of the Educational Department. The fourth is a middle school teaching up to A. V. Standard V in the City of Poona. Remissions of fees are granted to such poor deserving students as cannot afford to pay them on condition of their being regular in attendance and amenable to the discipline of the Society. ## GUJARAT COLLEGE, AHMEDABAD.

In 1856 the Honourable Mr. T. C. Hope (afterwards Sir Theodore Hope), then Educational Inspector for the Northern Division, convened a public meeting of the leading citizens of Ahmedabad, for the purpose of establishing an Arts College. Sir Theodore Hope said that the citizens of Ahmedabad should not rest content with the three schools which they had and added, "A system of education can neither be efficient nor national unless complete in all its parts. If it be impossible to raise the superstructure without first laying the foundation, it is equally useless to lay the foundation and build on it no superstructure at all." He therefore invited the citizens to raise a sum for a College in order to induce Government to supplement it. In response to this call a sum of Rs. 42,600 was raised. By the end of 1860, with the accumulation of interest and further donations the sum rose to more than Rs. 72,500 and Government in that year opened a class in the Government High School for teaching Law, Logic, Applied Mathematics and Drawing. This class was called "The Gujarat Provincial College." The cost of the College was Rs. 430 per mensem only, half of which was defrayed by Government. There were only three or four professors including the Head-Master of the High School, who acted as Principal of the new College. The College was not affiliated to the University of Bombay which came into being in 1857. Undergraduates, therefore, had to go to Bombay to read for their degree examinations. This was the main cause of paucity of numbers in the new College. At the end of the first decade (1861-1871) Government and the Gujarat College Fund Committee, finding that the small Class which had existed for this period did not answer the purpose for which the fund was raised, closed the institution from 1872. The funds were allowed to accumulate until a favourable opportunity presented itself to carry out the original object of establishing an Arts College. Government discontinued their share of contributions during the time the fund remained unspent.

In 1878 when Sir Richard Temple was Governor, Government announced that a College on a moderate scale could be started at an annual cost of Rs. 16,000, provided the citizens of Ahmedabad could contribute half this sum annually. The Municipality of Ahmedabad promised to contribute Rs. 3,000 per annum to make up the deficiency until the Endowment Fund was raised to Rs. 2,00,000. The College was re-opened in March 1879, and was affiliated to the University of Bombay up to the "First Arts Examination" which corresponded to our present Intermediate Arts Standard. The number of students which had risen to 39 in March 1880, dwindled to 7 only in November 1882, because the College did not teach the full University Course, and students found it more profitable to go to Bombay for their full undergraduate course. Leading citizens of Ahmedabad submitted a Memorial to the Educational Commission appointed by the Government of India which visited the city in November 1882. In the meanwhile the funds of the College through the energy of its citizens were raised to Rs. 2,00,000. Government accordingly undertook the management of the College from 1884, appointed a Staff for that purpose and held the College classes in a separate building. In that year the University of Bombay recognised the College up to the B.A. Examination. In 1887 Government handed over the institution to the Society for the Promotion of Higher Education in Gujarat. The administration of the College was assigned to a Board composed of Government Officials and representatives of the Society and the Municipality.

In 1898 the College was given 30 acres of land on its present site on the Ellis Bridge area. The cost of the new buildings was Rs. 1,92,327 of which Rs. 85,097 were contributed by Government. On the 16th of July 1912, the Society for the Promotion of Higher Education in Gujarat having dissolved itself the College was finally handed back to Government.

To assist Government to assume full and effective control of the College Sir Chinubhai Madhavai, Baronet, C.I.E., gave the munificent donation of Rupees two lakhs for the Arts College, Rupees six lakhs for the Science Institution in the College. The Madhavai Ranchhodlal Science Institute was inaugurated in 1912 by H. E. Lord Sydenham (then Sir George Clarke). Sir Chinubhai also donated Rs. 1,50,000 for the provision of a Library, which was named after Lord Sydenham as "The Sydenham Library" and a college hall designated "King George V Hall" to commemorate the visit of Their Majesties to India in 1911.

RAJKUMAR COLLEGE—Rajkot.

The Rajkumar College at Rajkot is the realisation of an idea originally conceived by the late General Keatinge, V.C., when Political Agent of Kathiawar, and successfully carried out by his successors. An inscription over the western entrance informs us that "This College was erected at the expense of the Chiefs of Kathiawar for the education of their sons." ## ROBERT MONEY SCHOOL—Girgaum—ESTABLISHED 1836.

This Institution was founded in 1836 in memory of Mr. Robert Cotton Money of the Bombay Civil Service, who was an ardent advocate of Higher Education based on Christian principles. After his death in 1835 a fund was raised by some of his friends who entrusted the founding of the school to the Church Missionary Society. From 1836 to 1908 it was carried on in a building at Dhobi Talao, well known to old residents of Bombay, after which it was moved to its present quarters in Procter Road, Girgaum. It consists of a Middle and High School, and prepares boys for Matriculation at the Bombay University, as well as for Government service. It is fortunate in having a playground next to the school building large enough for cricket and hockey.

The present staff consists of the Rev. Canon Geo. Clark, M.A. (Oxon), Principal C. H. Lloyd, B.A. (Cantab), and eighteen Indian masters. The number of boys on the roll is about 500.

The School is under the management of the Church Missionary Society, whose object is to give the boys an all-round education, based upon those moral and religious principles which actuated the founder to perpetuate the memory of a distinguished Civilian and devoted Christian.

SIR ELLY KADOORIE SCHOOL—Mazagon, Bombay.

Sir Elly Kadoorie School formerly the Israelite School was first opened on a small scale in 1875 for the education of Bene-Israel children. The school was subsequently enlarged in 1881, mainly through the efforts of the late Mr. Haeem Samuel Kehimkar, who worked for the school for over 25 years in his capacity as Hon. President, Secretary, and Treasurer. In 1898 the present spacious grounds of the School with a building were purchased for Rs. 80,000 collected from Government, the Anglo-Jewish Association, London, and generous members of the public from Europe and India.

In the year 1908 the school passed from the hands of the late Mr. Haeem Samuel Kehimkar into those of a Managing Committee, composed of 14 members, 3 nominated by the Anglo-Jewish Association, London, 10 elected by the members of the School, and the Principal Ex-officio. In 1928 Sir Elly Kadoorie, K.B.E., Com. Leg. Hon. of Shanghai, donated a sum of over £10,000 for the extension and remodelling of the building which amount supplemented by local donations, enabled the committee to house the school in the present commodious building. In appreciation of Sir Elly Kadoorie's princely gift the school is called after him since 1st April 1932.

The principal object of this school is to impart religious and secular instruction to Bene-Israel students. The school is now being taken advantage of by Hindu students of the locality. The school imparts both Primary and Secondary education, preparing students for the Matriculation Examination of the University of Bombay.

The fees charged in the school are extremely moderate and Bene-Israel girls are taught free throughout except in the High School Department where they are charged only half fees. The "Gate of Mercy" Synagogue, the oldest synagogue in Bombay, has been helping the school in various ways since 1912.

With a view to enable the children of poor parents to prosecute their studies in the school the late Mr. Herman Landau, O.B.E., a philanthropic gentleman of London, donated in the year 1919 a sum of Rs. 10,000. The interest on this sum is utilised in giving scholarships every year to the school children. The school also makes arrangements for providing books and clothing and one free meal a day to the children of poor Jewish parents. The expenses on this account are partly met from the interest on Rs. 5,000 received from Sir Victor Sassoon through Lady Reading.

SYDENHAM COLLEGE OF COMMERCE AND ECONOMICS.

Near Sir J. J. School of Art, Hornby Road.

The general purpose of this College—which was opened in October 1912—is to furnish young men embarking on a business life with an education of a University standard in subjects that are bound to be of primary interest and importance to them in their careers.

The College was founded on the model of the great and rapidly developing institution of a similar type in England, the Continent of Europe, and America, which have done so much to deepen and widen the understanding of industrial and commercial matters in the countries where they have been established.

As a College of "Commerce," it aims at training a class of Indian businessmen capable of ultimately rising, after the acquisition of practical experience, to the higher and more responsible positions in enterprise of every kind, by virtue of expert knowledge, breadth of outlook, organizing capacity, and force of character.

As a college of "Economics" it aims at providing a liberal education in all branches of social science likely to be helpful to anyone concerned with public affairs, whether as an administrator, a writer, or a teacher.

The College accordingly offers—

- (a) An obligatory General course in subjects, an acquaintance with which is required by every well informed businessman, e.g., Economic Theory, Industrial History, Commercial Geography, Foreign Trade, National Administration, Public Finance, Indian Currency and Banking, Statistics, Mercantile Law, Business Organization.
- (b) Optional courses in Special subjects, which are selected by students in accordance with the particular demands of their intended vocation, e.g., Banking, Accounting, Actuarial Science, the organization of the Cotton Trade and the Economics of Transport.

The College is affiliated to the University of Bombay, and provides a systematic course of study leading to the degree of Bachelor of a Commerce. Under the system of inter-collegiate lectures, it provides the courses in economics required by M.A. candidates. It offers facilities under trained investigators for post-graduate research in connection with the many problems of Indian economics development, past, present and future. There are evening classes to prepare candidates for the examination of the Accountancy Diploma Board, and also other single courses at low fees on selected subjects including shorthand, for the benefit of those engaged in business during the day. The Diploma in Accountancy, which will in future be a qualification for an Auditor's License, will be awarded both to successful candidates at the examination of the Accountancy Diploma Board and to Bachelors of Commerce who have taken "Advanced Accounting and Auditing" as their special subject at this College, after they have received adequate practical training for a period of three years under a recognised practising Accountant. The Society possesses a valuable reference library containing over 1,000 volumes and good reference collections of birds, snakes, lizards, small mammals, insects, marine and land shells, fishes, birds, eggs and a herbarium. It also owns a fine collection of horns, heads and skulls of the larger Indian Mammalia. The collections are practically limited to the Oriental Region.

In 1921 the Society was entrusted with the management of the Natural History Section of the Prince of Wales Museum, and a great part of the Society's collections, trophies and natural history specimens, other than the reference ones have been transferred to that Museum. These Exhibits are under the management of a Sub-Committee of three Trustees, two are appointed by the Society and the third by the Board of Trustees of the Prince of Wales' Museum.

The Society's reference collections continue to be maintained for the benefit of members and accredited students at the Society's rooms in Apollo Street.

The Society for several years conducted a survey of the Mammal Fauna of India and Burma. Over a lakh of Rupees was spent on this work and over 20,000 specimens have been examined and classified at the British Museum. This work has enabled the Secretary of State to authorize the publication of a new and completely revised edition of the volume on Mammals in the Fauna of British India Series.

The Society has completed Ornithological Surveys of the Eastern Ghats, Travancore, Cochin, Hyderabad State and Jodhpur, which have added greatly to our knowledge of the Avi-Fauna of India.

The Annual subscription is Rs. 25, which includes the Society's Journal. The Society numbers 1,200 members but many more are desired.

The Journal is published about four times a year and contains articles on different Natural History subjects as well as descriptions of new species, and local lists of different orders. In the more recent numbers, serial articles on Game Birds, Familiar Flowering Trees and general articles on Sport and Big Game Shooting have been appearing.

In 1928 the Society was registered under the Societies Registration Act of 1860. Under the Articles of Association the control and management of the Society was vested in an Executive Committee comprised of ten members of the Society resident in or within 200 miles of Bombay, which is assisted in an advisory capacity by an Advisory Committee composed of ten members residing outside the area.

At the close of 1934 there were 38 missionaries, 9 stations and 109 out-stations. The number of Indian Christian workers was 432. There were 66 churches with 6,826 communicants. ## BRITISH AND FOREIGN BIBLE SOCIETY (BOMBAY AUXILIARY).

Bible House, 170, Hornby Road, Bombay.

This Auxiliary of the British and Foreign Bible Society was founded in 1813, under the auspices of the Governor of Bombay, Sir Evan Nepean, who was a Vice-President of the Society in London. Its one aim and object is to circulate the Holy Scriptures, without note or comment, throughout Western India. Its first Honorary Secretary was the Rev. Thos. Barr, D.D., who became the first Bishop of Bombay. The stocks of Scriptures in English, French, Dutch, Portuguese, etc., were stored in the Vestry of St. Thomas' Cathedral for many years and the monthly meetings of Committee were held there regularly. Soon after the Auxiliary was founded, the translation of the Bible into Marathi and Gujarati, the two chief languages of Western India, was begun. The translation of the Gujarati Bible was completed in 1823, while the first Marathi Bible was published in 1847. During more than 120 years of work in Bombay Presidency, seven million copies of the Holy Scriptures have been circulated, chiefly by sale, at rates very much lower than cost price. Besides the translation, revision, publication and ordinary means of dissemination of the Bible large grants of money are made to Missionary Societies in order to assist Scripture distribution throughout Western India. Missionary Societies and Churches of all Protestant denominations depend solely on the Bible Society for vernacular Scriptures, which are essential to them in their various departments of service. Large numbers of English Bibles and New Testaments are also presented gratis every year to Graduates and Matriculates of Bombay University.

Since the greater proportion of the Society's expenses must be borne by voluntary contributions it is dependent upon the support of all Christian people for help to carry on its beneficent work.

CHURCHES OF ENGLAND.

ST. THOMAS' CATHEDRAL—Bombay.

The first scheme for building a Church on the Island of Bombay originated in 1675, the English Services then being conducted in a Hall in the Castle. Money was collected, but though the Church was commenced, it never got higher than fifteen feet. In 1715 Chaplain Cobbe appealed to have this stigma removed, and on Christmas Day, 1718, the Church was opened with great rejoicings. In 1814, Bombay had been made an Archdeaconry of Calcutta and on 7th January 1816 the Church was consecrated with all due solemnity by the Right Rev. Thomas Fanshawe Middleton, D.D. In 1837 Bombay was created a Bishopric, and in 1838 on the arrival of Dr. Carr, the first Bishop, it was notified to be the Cathedral Church of the See, 1838, under the dedication of St. Thomas the Apostle. The present pinnacled tower was erected consisting of a lantern standing upon a square tower at its base, the whole rising 146 feet from ground level and containing a clock with three small quarter bells each suitably inscribed. Silver Chalice what arc of particular interest—one being the gift of Governor Gerald Aungler, whilst the other's history is bound up in mystery and is inscribed "The gift of the Greenland merchants of the Cities of York, 1632." In 1867-68 the present beautiful chancel and organ chamber were constructed, the first-stone being laid by Sir Bartle Frere.

The Lady Chapel has a splendid reredos given as a thank offering, and the screen surrounding the Chapel is in memory of Captain Mathias who gave his life for his country during the great war.

CATHEDRAL ORGAN. The old organ was originally built by Messrs. Bishop & Sons of Ipswich and had the old, rather monotonous sweet tone associated with that class of organ.

In 1905 the instrument was entirely rebuilt, this work being carried out by Messrs. Henry Willis & Sons, of London, two members of their Firm spending over a year in Bombay on the work. During that rebuilding, a full scale wooden 32 ft. Diapason stop was added to the pedals and higher wind-pressure was introduced to several of the stops.

In 1920 a new Discus blower by Messrs. Watkins & Watson was installed, replacing the old electric motor bellows in the tower. About the same time, owing to the generous gifts of a member of the congregation, three new stops were procured from Messrs. Willis & Sons of London, to replace the worn out ones. The stops were Trompette, Aeoline, and the Vox Celeste. To accommodate the new Trompette a new sound board with swell box was fitted by Messrs. S. Rose & Co. of Bombay, and, in order to relieve the crowded conditions of the old swell, the Vox Humana was placed in this swell box with the Trompette.

In 1928 the instrument was entirely renovated by Messrs. S. Rose & Co. when the old style pedal action and drawstop actions were replaced by more up-to-date pneumatic systems. Several of the pedal stops were supplied with completely new sound boards.

The organ has three manuals and a large pedal organ. There are 42 speaking stops, 12 couplers and 13 composition pedals. The Choir Organ of 15 stops is divided, seven old stops being behind the great organ and 8, mostly solo stops, being in a separate swell box on a high platform above the swell.

The instrument has a beautiful tone and exactly suits the old Cathedral.

The Church is now self-supporting and is under the United Church of Northern India.

In 1920 a very handsome screen was erected on the East side of the Organ, by the Officers and men of the South Staffordshire Regiment, in memory of the men, who died while serving in Bombay 1917-19. In 1921 a Discus Electric Organ Blower was placed in the Church. In September 1923, a severe storm struck the steeple of the Church, and brought the Cross to the ground carrying away about 5 feet of masonry. In February 1924, a new Cast Iron Cross was erected by the Military Engineering Service. During April 1924, three cases for the colours of the XIII and XIX Bombay Native Infantry, and the XXIV Regiment were given and the colours encased for their safe preservation by Sir George Lloyd, G.C.I.E., D.S.O., Governor of Bombay. ## THEOSOPHICAL SOCIETY.

THE BLAVATSKY LODGE, Bombay.

THE THEOSOPHICAL SOCIETY was formed in New York by Mme. H. P. Blavatsky and Col. H. S. Olcott on 17th November 1875 and incorporated in Madras on 3rd April 1905 (having its Headquarters at Adyar, Madras). Col. H. S. Olcott was appointed President of the Society for life and since his death in 1907 Dr. Annie Besant had been elected President by four septennial elections, and held that office upto 20th Sept. 1933, the time of her passing on at Adyar. Since the Society has since elected Dr. George S. Arundale, M.A., LL.B., F.R.Hist.S., D.Litt., as its President. During its existence of 61 years the Society has spread its branches all over the world. It has 47 National Sections containing 1,345 Lodges. Its membership is about 33,300 of which 4,378 members belong to the Indian Section (having its Headquarters in Benares).

The Theosophical Society is an unsectarian body of seekers after Truth, striving to serve humanity on spiritual lines, and therefore endeavouring to check materialism and revive religious tendency. Its three declared objects are:—(1) To form a nucleus of the Universal Brotherhood of Humanity, without distinction of race, creed, sex, caste or colour. (2) To encourage the study of comparative religion, philosophy and science. (3) To investigate the unexplained laws of nature and the powers latent in man.

The Theosophical Society is composed of students, belonging to any religion in the world or to none, who are united by their approval of the above objects, by their wish to remove religious antagonisms and to draw together men of goodwill, whatsoever their religious opinions, and by their desire to study religious truths and share the results of their studies with others. Their bond of union is not the profession of a common belief, but a common search and aspiration for Truth. They hold that Truth should be sought by study, by reflection, by purity of life, by devotion to high ideals, and they regard Truth as a prize to be striven for, not as a dogma to be imposed by authority. They consider that belief should be the result of individual study, or of intuition, and not its antecedent, and should rest on knowledge, not on assertion. They extend tolerance to all, even to the intolerant, not as a privilege they bestow, but as a duty they perform and they seek to remove ignorance, not to punish it. They see every religion as an expression of the Divine wisdom and prefer its study to its condemnation and its practice to proselytism. Peace is their watchword, as Truth is their aim.

This Blavatsky Lodge, French Bridge, Chowpatty, Bombay, which was founded on 23rd April 1879, and obtained its charter on 20th February 1880, was registered on 9th July 1906. It is the first branch of the Society to be established in India and has its own spacious building, a good library and a book-depot. R. M. Ashnawala, B.A., LL.B. Barr-at-Law, is its President and Kandaswami H. Kanga its Hon. Secretary. The Lodge has about 200 members. There are seven other branches of the Society in Bombay and Suburbs. This Hospital for the poor, situated at Wylie Road, Gilder Street, New Lamington Road (Jacob Circle Post), was built and equipped by Mrs. Adams-Wylie, (now Mrs. Doughty-Wylie) in 1902 in memory of the late Lieut. C. H. B. Adams-Wylie, I.M.S., who died at Bloemfontein in 1900. The Hospital was under the direct management and maintenance of Mrs. Adams-Wylie for some years, but a fund of a lakh of rupees having been subscribed by the Public of Bombay and mofussil, Mrs. Adams-Wylie endowed the Hospital buildings in Trust, herself guaranteeing in perpetuity a certain annual sum for the upkeep of the Hospital. The Hospital has accommodation for 69 beds, of which about 13 are for the Consumptive Patients who are treated specially in separate ward known as the N. M. Petit Phthisis Ward. The other beds are for all diseases divided into Clinical and Surgical Wards and Female Ward. The very poor only of all castes and communities are admitted for treatment. The Hospital has a Dispensary for out-patients endowed by the Trustees of the N. M. Wadia Charities and daily between 9 and 11 A.M. (Sundays inclusive), it is open for the free treatment of out-patients of all communities.

Mrs. Doughty-Wylie once again paid a flying visit to the Hospital on the 1st of June 1928 and founded a New Trust whereby she was trying to get the Mill-owners' Association and the Municipal Corporation to agree to appoint a European Trustee and an Indian Trustee respectively from time to time to represent these institutions as Trustees in perpetuity under this Trust.

The property which she is putting into Trust for the benefit of the Hospital will consist of—

- (1) Trustee Securities and cash to the value of a lakh of rupees.
- (2) A few other Securities.
- (3) Certain Securities the interest from which will continue to be paid to her for her lifetime; but remain in the hands of the Trustees after her death.
- (4) A Capital Redemption Policy maturing in 73 years when it will yield £80,000 of which £40,000 will be earmarked for the re-building of the Hospital and £20,000 will be invested and the income expended for the upkeep of the Hospital under the terms laid down in the New Trust Deed.

CITY FEVER (INFECTIOUS DISEASES) HOSPITALS—

Arthur Road, Jacob Circle.

These Hospitals which are equipped and maintained by the Bombay Municipal Corporation were opened on the outbreak of an epidemic of small-pox on the 6th February 1892 at Arthur Road. Previous to this in the year 1888, the Bombay Municipality started a hospital at Grant Road called the Grant Road Infectious Diseases Hospital. This hospital was generally opened during the epidemics of small-pox and cholera and was closed during the rest of the year. The hospital worked for four, six, one and seven months during the years 1888, 1889, 1890 and 1891 respectively. It was permanently closed on the 26th July, 1892, and the patients, furniture, etc., were transferred to the newly selected site at Arthur Road. This new hospital was made ready for the admission of patients on 12th March 1892, and since then it was termed as The Arthur Road Hospital for Infectious Diseases. But when the small-pox section was entirely separated from the General section the name was given as "City Fever Hospitals." In the beginning, patients suffering from cholera and small-pox were chiefly admitted and treated, but now patients suffering from all infectious diseases are treated here. In the first outbreak of plague, patients suffering from that disease were also treated at this Hospital, and, from 1896 to 1901, 6,382 plague patients were treated. Since 1901 the admission of plague patients into this Hospital was discontinued, and a separate hospital known as Maratha Hospital was started for such cases in 1902. But from 1930, the Maratha Hospital is exclusively maintained for advanced tuberculosis and road side cases, and the admission of plague cases in the City Fever Hospitals is resumed.

At present the hospitals are divided into two units, one for small-pox and the other for all other infectious diseases except Tuberculosis.

The Children's Aid Society is a private charitable organisation with a grant-in-aid from Government. Its work lies amongst destitute children hailing from all parts of India, juvenile offenders less than 16 years of age and children offended against by adult persons. The extent of its activities can be estimated from the fact that in the first nine years of its existence over 7,000 remand cases had passed through the Umarkhadi Home, and that in 1930 a Junior Reformatory School for boys less than 12 years of age was opened in the Umarkhadi compound.

KING GEORGE V ANTI-TUBERCULOSIS LEAGUE.

The whole of the League, including two dispensaries and one Sanatorium, has been taken over by the Bombay Municipality.

PATRON.—H. I. M. the King-Emperor.

Soon after the Coronation Durbar and the visit to India of Their Imperial Majesties the King-Emperor and Queen-Emress, various projects were discussed to commemorate these events in an appropriate memorial. The late Sir Ratan Tata suggested organising a campaign against tuberculosis. With this view, he offered to contribute the munificent sum of Rs. 1,50,000 under certain conditions, and spread over a period of ten years.

A public meeting of the citizens of Bombay was held at the Town Hall on 3rd April 1912; H. E. the Governor presiding, where at the League called "King George V Anti-Tuberculosis League" was inaugurated, as a fitting memento of the Coronation Durbar and the Royal Visit, as also of His Majesty's deep, abiding and sympathetic interest for the welfare of his Indian subjects. A representative general committee was appointed for the purpose and from it a small executive committee was nominated with the late Dr. John A. Turner and Khan Bahadur Dr. N. H. Choksy, as Joint Honorary Secretaries.

Head Office, Dispensary and Information Bureau : Sanitary Institute Building, Princess Street.

Turner Dispensary : Tuberculosis Officer.—Dr. B. S. Kanga, M.D., D.P.H.

Sister-in-charge.—Miss A. Vieyra.

Nurse.—Miss M. Rajapurkar.

The Executive Committee applied itself firstly to collect funds for the League and secondly to make an early beginning in practical work by establishing a Central Tuberculosis Dispensary and Information Bureau. The Government of Bombay and the Municipal Corporation of Bombay, on being approached for assistance, granted to the League an annual donation of Rs. 10,000 each per year and subsequently increased to Rs. 15,000 and Rs. 20,000 respectively. The conditions under which Sir Ratan Tata's offer was made, were determined to this effect :—That the amount of his contribution for the first year was to be Rs. 15,000 and the same amount during each of the nine years following, provided the total funds of the League inclusive of the Government and Municipal contributions would aggregate Rs. 1,35,000, and on failing that, a sum equal to 10 per cent. of the yearly contributions, but in no case was his total yearly contribution to be less than Rs. 5,000 per year. The Executive Committee thankfully accepted the above proposals.

The League proposes to restrict its efforts to measures for the prevention of tuberculosis, its varied manifestation, and with this view it has devised the following plan of campaign (which is subject to modification as required) as best suited to local conditions and most likely to ensure early and adequate results.—

The Servants of India Society founded by the late Hon'ble G. K. Gokhale in 1905 with the object of training national missionaries for the service of India and promoting, by all constitutional means, the true interests of the Indian people, has its headquarters in Poona. It has four branches, one of them is in Bombay, the others being at Madras, Allahabad and Nagpur and six centres of work, viz., Dohad in Gujerat, Lucknow in U. P., Cuttack in Bihar and Orissa, Lahore in the Punjab and Calcutt and Mangalore in Malabar. The Bombay Branch now consists of six members—(1) N. M. Joshi, M.L.A. (Senior Member); (2) A. V. Thakkar; (3) L. R. Bakhale, M.L.C. (Secretary); (4) S. V. Parulekar, M.A.; (5) K. G. Sharanangani, B.A., LL.B., and one Permanent Assistant, K. J. Chitalla. Although it takes part in all kinds of public activities, political, economic, educational, social, co-operative, labour, etc., the Branch takes special interest in social work and co-operative and labour movements. The late Mr. G. K. Devadhar, who was the President of the Society, devoted considerable attention to co-operative movement in the Presidency, female education and Baly Week activities. The Poona Seva Sadan Society has been engaged in various useful activities such as primary education classes, training classes, English classes, sewing, weaving, knitting, hosiery and embroidery, singing and harmonium, first aid and home nursing classes. Besides, it arranges for the regular training of nurses and midwives at the Sassoon Hospital, Poona, and maintains three big hostels in Poona for the nurses and women students of the I.C.P.S. class. Over 1,600 women and girls take advantage of this organization. The Seva Sadan has also started branches at Ahmednagar, Sholapur, Satara, Baranasi, Bombay, Dadar and Girgaum, Alibag, Nasik, Nagpur, Gwalior and Madras. A large Maternity and Nursing Home for the benefit of the women of the Bhamia community and also a maternity home at Alibag are conducted. Mr. N. M. Joshi has been General Secretary of the Social Service League in the organisation of which he took a leading part, Joint Secretary of the Bombay Presidency Social Reform Association, President of the Bombay Textile Labour Union and Vice-President of a few other Labour Unions in Bombay. Mr. Joshi was the General Secretary of the All-India Trade Union Congress from 1925 to 1929. Since the inauguration of the Reforms Mr. Joshi has been nominated member of the Legislative Assembly representing labour interests. He had been five times to the International Labour Conference as the Workers' Delegate from India. Mr. Joshi has been a member of the Governing Body of the International Labour Conference since 1922. A good deal of the present day labour legislation in India stands to his credit. He was a member of the Royal Commission on Indian Labour. He was a member of the Round Table Conference and of the Indian Delegation associated with the Joint Select Committee of Parliament. Mr. A. V. Thakkar works at Dohad for the uplift of aboriginal tribes in Gujerat. He is the President of the Bhihi Seva Mandal for the last eleven years which he organised in 1922 and which is looking after the welfare of the Bhihi population of over 100,000. During 1933 famine, distress among Bhihis was relieved by public fund which the Mandal raised to over Rs. 57,000. He works for them by starting schools and hostels for their children, opening dispensaries and organising other measures for their amelioration. The Mandal conducts four boarding schools for primary and English education. Its workers take part in all beneficent works for Bhihis, including temperance and co-operative societies work. Since its inauguration in September 1932, Mr. Thakkar has been the General Secretary of the Harijan Sevak Sangh. In 1930 when large areas in Assam were devastated by unusually heavy floods Mr. Thakkar took a very leading part in collecting funds for the relief of the sufferers and organised measures of relief of a varied kind by touring all over the flooded areas with the help of local workers. During the prolonged strikes in Bombay some of the members of the Branch interested themselves in the relief of the afflicted. Mr. L. R. Bakhale is engaged in labour work in Bombay, particularly the textile labour. He is the General Secretary of the Bombay Textile Labour Union which was organised in January 1926. He was Assistant Secretary of the All-India Trade Union Congress from 1925 to 1929 and Joint Secretary of its Provincial Committee. Now he is the General Secretary of National Trades Union Federation. He went to Europe in 1928 to attend half a dozen labour and trade union conferences as a representative of Indian labour and studied the labour movement in Great Britain, Germany and Russia. In 1931 he again went to Europe to attend the International Labour Conference as the Indian Workers' delegate. He has been nominated a member of the Bombay

Legislative Council to represent labour. He was a member of the Indian Franchise Committee appointed in 1932 with Lord Lothian as its Chairman. Mr. Parulekar has been engaged in Labour work. He is Assistant Secretary of the Textile Union and Secretary of the Dharavi Tannery Workers' Union and a few other unions and edits the Indian Trade Union Record.
